Grand Getaways At The Glen Club

In 2008 GOLF Magazine voted The Glen Club the No. 1 “Best Public Course” in the state of Illinois and also ranked it 72nd on the Top 100 “Courses You Can Play” list. Located 30 minutes north of the Loop just west of Interstate 94, The Glen Club is the perfect place to enjoy a world class golf course that annually has hosted a Nationwide Tour event. Fine American dining is available after the round as well as an overnight stay in one of their 21 elegant rooms. Stay & Play packages include a continental breakfast, range use, and golf.

The Golf Club At Harbor Shores Grand Opening

The Golf Club at Harbor Shores celebrated the grand opening of its 18-hole Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course by hosting a historic golf event featuring course designer and golf legend Jack Nicklaus with golf greats Johnny Miller, Arnold Palmer and Tom Watson on August 10, 2010, called “Champions For Change”.

With all 18 spectacular holes now open, golfers can experience 3 holes of towering elevations and dramatic views of Lake Michigan, and 10 holes cut along the shores of the Paw Paw River. Harbor Shores is a must play for anyone visiting Southwest Michigan. Come for the day, or make it a getaway and enjoy upscale amenities at the Boulevard Inn and Bistro, or relax in comfort at the Silver Beach Hotel—both minutes away from Harbor Shores, Lake Michigan Hills and Berrien Hills golf courses.
